

TITLE:	Ryerson Interiors, Tuberculosis Exhibition
IDENTIFIER:	109-9.5-8
DESCRIPTION:	View of the top of the marble stairway on the second floor of the Ryerson Library building. The exhibit lining the wall was one put up by the local Tuberculosis association of which librarian Samuel Ranck was involved. Shown is the portion of the exhibit on the White Haven Sanatorium in Pennsylvania.
DATES:	1904 (Created)
SUBJECT HEADINGS (TGM):	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Libraries Galleries (Upper level spaces) Exhibitions Architectural decorations & ornaments
FILE IDENTIFIER:	109-9.5-8
SOURCE:	Grand Rapids Public Library administrative archives (Coll. 109) - Grand Rapids History Center
PART OF DIGITAL COLLECTION:	Photographs of the Grand Rapids Public Library
RELATED PLACE	Grand Rapids (is depicted by)